

Grand Bazaar NYC

2026 Pricing & Fees

Effective Oct 1, 2026

Founded in 1985 by tenacious parents who wanted a better education for their children, Grand Bazaar NYC is the longest-running and largest open air market in NYC. Today, we proudly showcase vendors of all backgrounds - from start-ups to veterans - and provide unmatched support and opportunity for businesses – all while distributing our profits back to four local public schools. Your participation in our events makes you part of a community of people building a more vital NYC, together.

Vendor Categories:

We pride ourselves on curating a dynamic environment with a diversity of high-quality vendors at Grand Bazaar NYC for an affordable price. General categories include:

- All vendors: Exceptional artisans, vintage, antiques, specialty dealers, and baked/package food items.
- Food Court vendors: Outstanding merchants who prepare food on-site; vendors in the food court area.

All reservations must be paid in full in advance to be confirmed.

See the Reservations & Payment Process section for details. Payments are final. Prices are subject to change.
